

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FORMER IBM INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LICENSING EXECUTIVE
ANTHONY K. SEBRO, JR. JOINS PCT COMPANIES

Sebro to Launch NY Office as Managing Director of PCT's Capital Group

Washington, DC – May 27, 2009 – The PCT[®] Companies – the nation's only integrated provider of Intellectual Property-based public policy, strategic management and monetization advisory services – today announced that Anthony K. Sebro, Jr., former Program Director of Technology and IP at IBM, has joined the firm as Managing Director of its Capital group. Mr. Sebro will oversee the launch of the firm's NY office, which will specialize in IP analytics, management and monetization services. The firm will open the doors to its NY office in the third quarter of this year within the Upper Manhattan Empowerment Zone.

“Tony is highly respected in the industry and brings a wealth of experience to the firm as a seasoned professional with a broad business and legal background relating to intellectual property strategy, business development and monetization,” said Raymond Millien, Founder and Chairman of the PCT Companies. “We’re excited to have him on board and look forward to his contributions as we grow our presence in New York, as well as nationally.”

At IBM, Anthony Sebro was responsible for developing and executing strategies to leverage IP assets to generate business value. In that role, he led negotiations and structured deals with market leaders in the web technology, e-commerce, retail, enterprise software, and financial services sectors. Mr. Sebro also led key strategic initiatives internally, including the development of coordinated IP development and monetization strategies for emerging market sectors and disruptive technologies as well as the revamping and supervision of IBM's corporate-wide process for determining the value and availability of patents for sale.

Prior to his tenure at IBM, Mr. Sebro practiced law in the New York office of Kenyon & Kenyon LLP, handling IP litigation and licensing matters for clients in the medical, pharmaceutical and mechanical technology areas.

Mr. Sebro received his J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School, his M.B.A. from the Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan, and his B.S. in Mechanical Engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is a member of the New York State Bar, admitted to practice in the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York and registered to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

About PCT[®] Companies

The PCT Companies (www.PCTCompanies.com) is the nation's only integrated provider of Intellectual Property-based public policy, strategic management, monetization, and analytics advisory services. Its professionals are internationally recognized for providing unmatched diversity and depth of experience to a broad range of clientele such as corporations, law firms, investors, individuals, government agencies and research institutions. Headquartered in Washington, DC with a satellite office in Beijing, PRC, PCT

is comprised of a family of companies including: PCT Capital, LLC – an IP advisory and asset management firm; PCT Federal Services, LLC – an IP consulting firm servicing government agencies; and PCT Government Relations, LLC – a bipartisan, public policy advisory firm focused on issues involving IP, innovation and technology.

###

Media Contact:

Wendy Chou

CHOUmedia

+1.718.812.6707

wendy@choumedia.com